ABOUT Char Dham Temple

A DIVINE HIMALAYAN PILGRIMAGE

The Char Dham consists of four holy temples in Uttarakhand—Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath, and Badrinath—nestled in the Himalayan mountains. These sacred shrines are highly revered in Hinduism, and visiting them is believed to purify the soul and lead to Moksha (liberation). The pilgrimage circuit was established by Adi Shankaracharya in the 8th century.

The Char Dham Yatra by Helicopter offers a quick, comfortable, and convenient way to complete this sacred journey, allowing devotees to visit all four temples without the strain of long and difficult treks.
